Monday Feb 1, 1937.

Dear Paul:
I received your letter this a.m. Glad you haven't had a sick head ache. Work hasn't been too hard with the Wileys.
I sure would like some old fashioned cattle.
Honey Lucille seems better. Remember me to her. I will find out about Mrs. H. later this afternoon.
It's my Wallace birthday tomorrow the 2nd.
We will probably take a trip for the day. We are having wonderful weather here never like this before. It is better done sit around to hand. Honey of course get my check sooner. I sent it via mail the 22nd. Friday.
I am having a good time. Love and kisses

Papa Young.
